

Peasants, catholic or orthodox Christians, people maintain old customs and habits:

- People Old folk clothes from Gura Raului in a spring Sunday.
- The orthodox church is from 1800, and the catholic one is from 1700.
- You can find the Roman Empire influence in the way they use to manage the water resources. The descendents of the Romans built a large drinkable water barrage.
- Horses constitute a common presence in the area. They are not only trustful friends, they are also used in agriculture.
